Actor Samuel J. Ryan Sees
His Long-Lost Sweetheart
in a Box.

Girl Promptly Faints, Recovers
and Invites Her Old Lover to Dinner.

There the Old Passion Returns and the Two Are Married
Next Day.

MAN GETS A WIFE AND A FORTUNE.

Twelve Years Ago Stubborn Parents Broke Off the Match; Now the Mother Cables Congratulations.

Samuel J. Ryan, Irish comedian, is married, and he married a belle, too. They were sweethearts twelve years ago in Cincinnati, but were separated by the conventional stern parents. They drifted apart and neither saw nor heard of one another until last Saturday. Then Miss Alma Carl, who lives at No. 113 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street, but who was visiting friends in Jersey City, dropped in at a matinee performance wholly unconscious that the star was the man whom she had loved and to whom she had pledged her troth half a decade ago.

With her friends, Miss Carl took her seat in the box, and when Mr. Ryan made his first appearance, she gazed at him a moment, gave a gasp and promptly fainted. The recognition had been mutual and Ryan immediately forgot his lines.

After the performance Miss Carl met Mr. Ryan and he dined with her at the home of her friends.

The old love returned and on Sunday night, just as the Rev. John L. Scudder had returned to the parsonage from the Tabernacle Church, there was a ring at his doorbell, and in walked Mr. Ryan and Miss Carl.

The usual questions and answers were gone through with and Samuel J. Ryan and Alma Carl were pronounced man and wife.

Miss Carl said her travelling in Europe, Mrs. Carl, in years ago, had opposed a union with an actor, but when a cablegram was sent to her at Vienna she wired back congratulations and a blessing.

The happy couple returned to this city immediately and took up their residence in Harlem.

Mrs. Ryan is a tall, statuesque blonde, twenty-six years old, with a decidedly pretty face and deep blue eyes. She is possessed of considerable property in her own right and will inherit at least $150,000 more on the death of her mother. Mr. Ryan is thirty-two years old and has been on the stage since he was a child.

CHANCE FOR A DISPUTE.
Two Stories of an Accident to Mrs. Lorenzo Who Was Hurt While Bicycle Riding.

Walter W. Taylor, a real estate broker, of No. 1401 Boston avenue, and Dr. Edward J. Lorenzo, of No. 1608 Lexington avenue, have gone through with a dispute, which was accounted in an accident in which Mrs. Lorenzo sustained serious injuries while on bicycle riding with her husband in Boston road, Bronxville, Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Lorenzo claims that Mr. Taylor, driving a buggy, ran down Mrs. Lorenzo and drove off; that he gave chase on his bicycle and overtook Taylor, who declined to stop, and, realizing the danger, he dismounted and pulled her up into the carriage. He then stopped his horse, he says, and asked the doctor to help her, to which she and the doctor replied that she was hurt. He offered to take her home in his carriage, but this was declined, so he gave them his card and drove off.

Dr. Lorenzo visited the Westchester station Saturday night and Mr. Taylor's arrest following. He was arraigned yesterday and held in $300 bail for examination October 15.

Hebrews Become Christians.
The Rev. Dr. John Hall, of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, last night baptized a number of Hebrews, converted to the Christian religion. The ceremony took place in the little chapel of the American Mission to the Jews, No. 424 Grand street.

After a short prayer by Superintendent Herman Warszawski and a psalm by Miss Taylor, Dr. Hall made a short prayer. In German, he preached a short sermon on the subject of the baptism of converts of the East Side. After another psalm by Miss Taylor, Dr. Hall explained in a very simple manner what the baptism of converts meant. He baptized four women, one man and four young children, and asked a blessing upon them, particularly the children.
